BAKERS' GIGS WHEELS P: QUICK RELEASE

The arrival of John A. Hall, the accused treasurer of the Southbridge Savings Bank, at his home in Chapin street, Southbridge, today, following his sudden release from custody in $50,000 bail at Webster, caused great excitement in his home town.

ELLIS TAKES CHARGE OF U. S. MEAT INQUIRY

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—Wade E. Ellis, assistant Attorney General of the United States, arrived in Chicago today to "oversee" the prosecution of Judge Tamm's Beef Trust investigation, his arrival and departure from Washington, have proceeding it through the Federal building into a room of doubt as to what his real object is. It was reported from one source that he came here at the order of President Taft, to look into the investigation with all possible speed, and "bring on the goods" for the porkers the law provides, including big game.

BROCKTON UNIONS DECLARE WAR ON MEAT BOYCOTT

BROCKTON, Jan. 27.—Brockton declared today that the Central Labor Union had adopted resolutions to support the meat boycott. This does not mean that the Central Labor Union has taken the meat boycott, but it is the resolution to support it. The resolution was passed by a vote of 10 to 2.
